

with some person, on reasonable terms, to make said footway, or repair the same, and may collect the expense thereof, with costs, by distress on such property.

Section 336. They shall have the power to pass ordinances limiting the time or preventing the standing of cars across the streets of said City, to the inconvenience or delay of public travel on the thoroughfares of said City; and they shall also have power to pass ordinances to prevent the deposit of garbage and filth in the "Deep Cut" through Saint Clare street, and shall pass such ordinances as will compel the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company to keep the "Cut" in a cleanly condition; to construct proper, sufficient and safe bridges over the same; to keep the walls and fences in good repair and safe condition; and they shall have the power to enforce the ordinances passed to carry out the provisions of this Section, by fines of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, to be collected before a Justice of the Peace.

Section 337. They shall have power to provide for and take care of any persons suffering from accident or otherwise, who are unable to take care of themselves, and if deemed necessary shall have them sent to the alms house of said county; and all expenses so incurred shall be repaid to the corporation by the County Commissioners, who are authorized and required to levy annually for such amounts, payable to the Mayor and City Council of Havre de Grace.

Section 338. They shall have the power to enforce the observance of such ordinances as they may pass, by fines of not less than fifty cents nor more than twenty dollars, unless herein specially provided for; all fines imposed by any ordinance may be collected in the name of the Mayor and City Council of Havre de Grace, before a Justice of the Peace, similar to the mode of collecting small debts, and the delinquent shall stand committed to the county jail until the fine is paid, with costs; the Sheriff shall receive and safely keep in the jail of said county, all persons so committed for breach or violation of any of the ordinances of said City, according to the tenor of the commitment, and in the same manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for the violation of the laws of this State; and the Bailiff of said City, or his deputies, shall have power to arrest, without warrant, any persons engaged in violating any of the ordinances or disturbing the public peace, and confine them in the lock-up until such time as he
