

either party may appeal to the Circuit Court for Harford County within five days from the date of such determination. The said appeal shall be promptly heard by said Court upon such evidence as may be material and offered by either party and the decision of said Court shall be final.

Section 364. No license to sell spirituous liquors or fermented liquors in said City shall be granted to any applicant therefor, until such person shall file a written affidavit, sworn to before said Clerk, that said applicant has bona fide and without intending to evade the spirit and meaning of said sections of this sub-title of this article, duly provided, and will at all times during the continuance of said license, maintain and keep for use at least three chambers more than are needed for such person's own private or family purposes, for the reception of guests or permanent or transient boarders, and at least four beds, with sufficient covering therefor, and stabling for at least six horses, and that said chambers and beds are and shall remain upon the said premises; and in which shall be stated the name and residence of the applicant, and the location of the premises on which the business is to be conducted with name of the owner thereof, and that said applicant has not been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title of this Article.

Section 365. No license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in said City shall be granted to any applicant who has complied with the three preceding Sections until said applicant shall have paid to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Harford County the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, and the further sum of five dollars for approving and filing the said bond and other papers and for his other costs and charges in issuing the said license, which said sum of three hundred and fifty dollars the said Clerk shall pay over to the Mayor and City Council of Havre de Grace within thirty days after it has been received by him, without any abatement or deduction whatever, and the said Mayor and City Council shall apply all such sums so received by them after the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one; first, to the payment of the interest on the bonded indebtedness of said City, and whatever surplus remains after the payment of said interest shall be paid over to and become a part of the sinking funds of said City to pay the principal of said bonds at their maturity.

Section 366. Every person having complied with the provisions of the five preceding Sections, and having obtained a