

Section 381. Any pharmacist, druggist or physician who shall violate the provisions of the preceding Section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, and failing to pay said fine and costs of prosecution forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

Section 382. The provisions of this sub-title of this article shall not apply to sales by the manufacturers of cider in quantities not less than a gallon, which shall not be drunk on the premises of the manufacturer, nor to sales of spirituous or fermented liquors by the manufacturer thereof to any person licensed to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in said City.

Section 383. Whenever any license shall be suppressed for any violation of this sub-title of this article, it shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Harford County to grant a license to any other person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors upon the premises covered by the license suppressed, for the term of one year from the date of such suppression.

Section 384. All licenses issued under this sub-title of this article shall expire on the first day of May, annually, but licenses may be issued for a shorter period than one year upon the payment of a proportionate part of the license fee hereinbefore provided for; and licenses issued under said Sections of this sub-title of this article shall be transferable as traders' licenses now are under the public general laws of this State; provided, that before any license under this sub-title of this article is assigned or transferred, the assignee shall have complied with all the provisions of said sections of this sub-title of this article required by any applicant for an original license, except the payment to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the hereinbefore mentioned sum of three hundred and fifty dollars.

Section 385. In any prosecution under this sub-title of this article, it shall only be necessary to state that the traverser did sell or give away spirituous or fermented liquors, without specifying the particular kind of liquor.

Section 386. All prosecutions for violations of any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article shall be upon presentment and indictment, except as hereinbefore specially provided for; and one-half of all fines imposed under said Sections shall be paid to the County Commissioners of Harford
