

SCHOOLS.

452. The board of county school commissioners shall not expend for school purposes, or for any other purpose, a greater sum of money in any one year than shall be annually levied for school purposes, by the county commissioners, in addition to the amount annually received by the said school commissioners from the treasurer of the State; and they shall not borrow any sum of money in any one year in excess of their actual receipts and incomes for such year, as provided by law; and it shall not be lawful for said county school commissioners to contract or pay any debt in excess of the annual revenue provided by law for school purposes; nor shall the county commissioners assume or pay any debt or any portion thereof contracted in violation of the provisions of this section.

SHERIFF.

453. The Sheriff shall not be entitled to receive more than fifty cents per day for keeping and boarding each prisoner confined in the County Jail; and the County Commissioners shall make quarterly settlements with him upon the presentation of his account for the same with proper vouchers.

454. He shall be entitled to receive from the county commissioners, to be levied annually by them, the sum of two dollars and a half a day for each day he shall attend the Circuit Court for said county whilst in session, either in person or by deputy, and such compensation for the service of any bench warrant or attachment for contempt issued by said court as said court may deem reasonable; he shall also receive the sum of fifteen dollars for carrying and conveying each person under sentence to the State penitentiary or house of correction, or to or from the jails of any of the counties of this State, and the jails or station-houses of the City of Baltimore, or to or from any other place of confinement under the sentence or final order of any authorized judicial authority, the sum of fifteen dollars when the distance of transportation is forty miles or under, and for a greater distance twenty dollars and no more, unless the county commissioners shall be satisfied that extraordinary care and caution had to be exercised, accompanied with danger, trouble and expense; and said sheriff shall not be allowed a fee for empanelling a jury, except in cases where he is by law required to swear and empanel them.

455. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to employ a competent physician to attend the inmates of the county jail when-
