

497. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, shall, upon conviction, pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, and forfeit the boat, together with her tackle and apparel, and all other property on board of her at the time of her seizure; and the proceedings to enforce such penalties shall be as prescribed in Sections 255 to 258 inclusive.

498. All that part of the Chesapeake Bay and its waters, lying northward of the following line, viz.: beginning at the light-house on Turkey Point, in Cecil County, and drawn westward to a point half a mile north of the most northerly part of Spesutia Island, thence continuing said line still westward, within half a mile of, and north of the northern end of said island and the adjacent mainland, until it reaches the shore in Harford County, at or near Oakington, shall be subject to the operation of the twenty-two sections following.

499. The season for shooting wild fowl northward of the line described in the preceding section, shall begin on the first day of November in each and every year, and continue until the first day of March next succeeding, in each and every year hereafter; and it shall not be lawful for any person to kill or shoot at wild fowl northward of said line, except from ashore, and southward of a line drawn east from Point Concord light-house in Harford County, to Carpenter's Point on the western shore of Cecil County, at any other time; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

500. It shall be lawful to shoot teal ducks, mallards, black ducks, baldpates and all other ducks known as marsh ducks, blackbirds, railbirds, reedbirds, in any manner other than by swivel gun, or big gun, from one hour before sunrise until five o'clock P. M. every day from the first day of September to the first day of October of each year, on the waters of the Chesapeake Bay, lying and being within the bounds prescribed by Section 498.

501. No person shall shoot or kill, or shoot at, any wild fowl, in, on or over the waters lying northward of the line described in Section 498, in the night time, with guns of any size or description whatever; and any person violating the provisions of this section, upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, for each and every violation thereof.
