

502. No person shall, at any time, either in the day or night time, shoot or kill, or shoot at any wild fowl, in or over the waters lying northward of the line described in Section 498, from any vessel, boat, float, canoe, sneak boat, sink boat, or any other craft of any kind or description whatever, within one-quarter of a mile of any shore in Harford or Cecil County; and any person violating this section shall, on conviction thereof, be subject to a penalty for each offense of not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars.

503. Any person owning land bordering upon the Chesapeake bay, within the limits aforesaid, or his assigns, may, in the months of October or November, in each year, select and mark any one point on his shore, as reserved for his gunning during the season of, or immediately following said selecting and marking as aforesaid; and thereafter such owner, or their assigns, shall have, during said season, the exclusive right to station crafts, gun, or set decoys within the one-quarter of a mile line from the shore, as now allowed; and also, within the additional space between said quarter of a mile line and a line distant one-half a mile from any shore in Harford County, three hundred yards wide on each side of a line drawn at right angle to the shore line, from the points selected as aforesaid, to said half a mile line; and any person violating this section, shall, on conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace or Circuit Court of the county where such violation occurs, be subject to a penalty for each offense of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, in the discretion of said justice or court.

504. No person shall kill, or shoot at wild water-fowl, in, on or over the waters of the Chesapeake bay, from any boat, box or vessel of any kind or description whatever, with any big or swivel gun, or any kind of gun which cannot be conveniently discharged from the shoulder at arm's-length, and without a rest; and any person violating this section, on conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense.

505. No person shall gun for or go after wild water-fowl or shoot at or kill the same northward of the line described in Section 498, but three days in each week, until the first day of January, during the season for shooting wild water-fowl, as fixed by Section 499, and those days prior to the first day of January shall be Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and on and after the first day of January shall be Monday, Wednesday,
