

meanor, and upon indictment and conviction thereof in the Circuit Court, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than sixty days, or both fined and imprisoned, within the limits herein prescribed, in the discretion of the court.

515. All vessels, sink-boats, sink-boxes, sneak-boats, and other craft, and all guns and decoy ducks seized and condemned under the provisions of said sections, shall be sold by the constable or sheriff of the county in which such condemnation may be made, at public sale, after giving twenty days' notice of the time and place of such sale, by advertisement in one newspaper in such county, and by written or printed notices posted up at four of the most public places within two miles of the place of such sale, to the highest bidder, for cash; and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting all the legal expenses of seizure, condemnation and sale, shall be divided as follows, viz.: one-half to the officer making the seizure, and the other half to the persons aiding the officer in making the same.

516. Every two years the Governor shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the Senate, a board of special police, who shall hold their offices until their successors qualify, or during the pleasure of the Governor; the said board of special police shall consist of two citizens of Harford and two citizens of Cecil county; they shall have power to appoint as many deputies, to be chosen from among those who have taken out license under the provisions of Sections 506 to 512, inclusive, as in their judgment may be necessary; they, and their deputies, shall have power to arrest, with or without warrant, upon their own view, or upon credible information, all persons violating any of the provisions of Sections 498 to 522, inclusive, and to carry such persons before any justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to the provisions of said sections; and they shall be paid for their services the monies, and no other, received by the clerks of the circuit courts for Harford and Cecil counties, for licenses issued for the privilege of shooting wild fowl, which monies shall be distributed as follows: at the end of each gunning season the said clerks shall each certify to the other the amount received by each for issuing the said licenses, and the clerk who has received the larger amount (if either has received a larger amount than the other) shall pay over to the other such a sum as will render the amounts in the hands of both equal; then the clerk of the circuit court for Cecil County shall pay the sum received by him as aforesaid
