

and shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than sixty days, or both fined and imprisoned within the limits herein prescribed.

529. The Justices of the Peace of Harford and Baltimore Counties, and the Circuit Court for said Counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that may arise under the provisions of any of the seven preceding sections, and all of them shall have full power, authority and jurisdiction to impose fines, order the imprisonment and pass the judgments of condemnation and sale hereby provided in the respective counties in which the offense may be committed; and if the offense shall be committed in the waters of the Gunpowder River, or in the waters of the Chesapeake Bay, as aforesaid, the person so offending, and the articles seized, may be conveyed to either Harford or Baltimore county for trial and condemnation before a Justice of the Peace or the Circuit Court for either county.

530. Any party against whom any Justice of the Peace may render a judgment under any of the eight preceding sections, either to pay a fine or of condemnation of property, may at any time within ten days from the rendition of such judgment appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court for the county wherein the same may have been rendered; but no order of imprisonment or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond, with two sufficient securities, to be approved by the Justice, to the State of Maryland, in double the value of the property condemned and of the fine imposed, as the case may be, with condition to prosecute such appeal with effect to the Circuit Court at its next session thereafter, and to pay the value of the property condemned and fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings in case judgment shall be affirmed.

531. All articles hereinbefore enumerated, seized and condemned under the provisions of any of the nine preceding sections, shall be sold by the constable or sheriff, or other officer of the county in which such condemnation may be made, at public sale, after giving twenty days' notice of the time and place of such sale by advertisement in one newspaper in the county where such condemnation may be made, and by written or printed notice being posted up at four of the most public places within two miles of the place of said sale, to the highest bidder for cash; and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting
