

all the legal expenses of seizure, condemnation and sale, shall be divided as follows, to wit: One-half to the informer and the other half to the Commissioners of said county, for the benefit of the school fund of said county; if, among the articles so seized and condemned, there shall be a big or swivel gun, the same shall not be sold, but shall at once be destroyed or rendered useless by the officer in custody thereof.

532. No person shall at any time take, catch or trap, or attempt to take, catch or trap, wild water-fowl, by nets of any kind, within the Chesapeake Bay or any of its tributaries within Harford, Cecil or Baltimore county, or within any of the waters of said bay lying northward of a line drawn westerly from the most southerly points of Cecil County bordering on said bay, to the most southerly point of Baltimore County bordering on said bay.

533. Any person violating any of the provisions of Section 532 upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of the county where such violation took place, or on indictment before the Circuit Court for said county, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, in the discretion of said justice or court, and in default of payment of such fine shall be forthwith committed to the county jail for the period of sixty days; and from the judgment of said justice there shall be the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for the county where said justice resides; provided, said appeal shall be taken within ten days from the date of the rendition thereof; but execution thereon shall not be stayed unless the party appealing shall give the usual appeal bond to the State of Maryland in double the fine imposed and costs, with two sureties, to be approved by said justice.

534. The Justices of the Peace of Harford, Cecil and Baltimore Counties, and the Circuit Court for each of said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that may arise under the provisions of Section 532, when the violation of such provisions takes place on said bay; and when such violation takes place on any waters or streams forming the boundary between any of said counties, the Justice of the Peace of either of said counties bounding on said waters or streams, and the Circuit Court for either of said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction; and any person arrested for the violation of any of the provisions of these sections may be taken to either of said counties, for commitment and trial; and from the judg-
