

ous States, such sum as they may think proper, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars; to the State Industrial Accident Commission for salaries and expenses as provided by Chapter 800 of the Acts of 1914, as amended by the Acts of 1916, fifty-five thousand dollars; for the support of insane convicts as provided by Chapter 123 of the Acts of 1890, the sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary; to the State Lunacy Commission for salaries and expenses, forty-five hundred dollars; to the State Bank Commissioner, two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to make up any deficiency between the cost of running said office and the fees collected by him in the conduct of his said department, as provided by Chapter 805 of the Acts of 1914; to the Board of State Aid and Charities for salaries and expenses, fifty-one hundred dollars; to the Advisory Board of Parole for salaries and expenses, the sum of twelve thousand dollars to be expended in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 500 of the Acts of 1914; to the Public Service Commission for salaries and expenses as provided in Article 23 of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, as amended, the sum of ninety-five thousand dollars, out of which sum the People's Counsel shall be paid additional compensation of eighteen hundred dollars for his services in connection with the investigations of the United Railways & Electric Company, the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company and the Baltimore County Water and Electric Company, now pending before the Commission; to the State Board of Health for the examination and analysis of food and drugs as provided in Section 175, Article 43 of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars; for the support and expenses of the bureaus of communicable diseases, bacteriology, chemistry, sanitary engineering and vital statistics, as provided in Sections 24 to 32 inclusive, of Article 43 of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, the sum of twenty thousand dollars; for the further expenses of the bureau of communicable diseases provided by Chapter 512 of the Acts of 1912, the sum of ten thousand dollars; for the Pasteur treatment for hydrophobia and the purchase of diphtheria antitoxin and other similar serums for the treatment of infectious diseases, the sum of two thousand dollars; for the better preservation of the public health by preserving the purity of the waters of the State and for the supervision