

free text-books and the materials of instruction, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars; for printing the annual report of the operations of the public schools, on the order of the Governor, the sum of two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary; for one-half of the salaries of Superintendents, supervisors, and attendance officers in the several counties, and the City of Baltimore, as provided by law, the sum of sixty-thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

After the foregoing amounts, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are paid, the remainder of the said sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, shall be distributed, according to law, to the several counties and the City of Baltimore; provided the Treasurer shall not be required to pay any of the foregoing amounts other than quarterly, except in his own discretion.

To the Maryland Agricultural College, the sum of forty thousand dollars, for maintenance of the College proper; five thousand dollars for the maintenance of the Eastern Branch at Princess Anne; twenty-five thousand dollars for the maintenance of the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station; five thousand dollars for the maintenance of the Sub-Station of the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station at Ridgely; for maintenance of extension and demonstration work in agriculture, and home economics, and to provide for administrative work, printing, and distributing publications, boys' and girls' club work, movable schools, travel and supplies, as necessitated by the United States Smith-Lever Act, in order to make certain appropriations therein contained available from the United States Congressional appropriations, the sum of twenty thousand six hundred and fifty-nine dollars; twenty-three thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for salaries for County Demonstrators, not more than one thousand dollars to be used in any one County; in the case of any County not employing a County Demonstrator, the money shall revert to the State Treasury; for executive and office expenses, and for expenses for printing, correspondence courses, and the employment of specialists and for conducting extension work that cannot be done under the United States Acts of appropriations, the sum of five thousand dollars; for the maintenance of the Department of Farmers' Institutes, the sum of six thousand dollars; to the Board of Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural College, for