

cers of registration and the Town Clerk, Treasurer and Collector, when sitting as an officer of registration, shall have, during the appointed time of their respective sittings, in addition to the duties and authority hereinbefore given them, such powers as are conferred on officers of registration by Section 15, of Article 33, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland. Each candidate, at any election held under any of the provisions of the Charter of Cambridge, or any amendments thereto, shall have the right to enter the place of registration or the polling place for his ward at any time during the days appointed for registration of voters, or during the voting and the counting of the votes, each candidate shall also have the right to designate one watcher, who shall have the same power as the candidate himself, in regard to observing the conduct of the registration, the casting and counting of the vote. Unless there are more than two candidates for nomination for Commissioner of Cambridge in any ward, no primary election shall be held and the one candidate or two, as the case may be, shall stand as the candidate or candidates to be voted for at the following election or special election for Commissioner of Cambridge.

65. The Commissioners of Cambridge may cause an assessment to be made from time to time, by three persons appointed by it of all the property real, personal and mixed, of all kinds and descriptions whatsoever, that may be within the corporate limits of Cambridge, belonging to the inhabitants, firms, incorporated bodies and unincorporated associations thereof, or to any person, firm, incorporated bodies or unincorporated associations, doing business therein. The Commissioners of Cambridge may at its annual session for the correction of assessments, or at any other time, place upon the tax books all, such property as would be liable to assessment at any general assessment; provided that one hundred dollars' worth of property of each person assessed be exempt from taxation. No abatement of taxes of any kind shall be made by the Commissioners of Cambridge or by any individual Commissioner at any time except at the annual meeting, for that purpose provided by the Charter of Cambridge. The assessors and the Commissioners of Cambridge in making any assessment shall value the property on the basis of its cash value or estimated cash value.
