

measurer and inspector of oysters for the City of Baltimore shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of three thousand dollars, and all other general measurers and inspectors and all the special inspectors shall give bond to said State in the sum of one thousand dollars for the faithful performance of their duties; and the general measurers and inspectors shall have the same power and authority over oysters sold in the waters adjacent to the port to which they may be assigned as hereinafter given to the general measurers and inspectors over such city, town or port for which they shall be respectively named.

70. The Conservation Commission, at the commencement of, or during the oyster season in each year, as needed, shall appoint from the counties producing oysters for packing purposes in the State, not exceeding twenty special inspectors, at a salary of forty-five dollars per month, while actually employed during the oyster season, and they shall be stationed at such places as in the judgment of said Commission their services may be needed. Before assuming the duties of their offices the said special inspectors shall take an oath, to be administered by one of the members of the Commission, to diligently and faithfully discharge the duties of their said offices; each said special inspector shall inspect all oysters in the district to which he is assigned; upon the inspection of any such oysters, each special inspector shall make a certificate of the number of bushels in triplicate, one of which shall be given to the purchaser, one to the seller, and the other daily to the general measurer and inspector of the district where such inspection occurred; in order to help defray the expenses occasioned by the inspection of oysters caught within the limits of the State of Maryland provided for by this section and by the other sections of this article, including the expenses of the State Fishery Force growing out of the inspection by it of oysters caught within the limits of the State of Maryland as required by the various provisions of this article, an inspection charge of one cent per bushel is hereby levied upon all oysters caught within the limits of the State of Maryland unloaded from vessels at the place in Maryland where said oysters are to be no further shipped in bulk in vessels, to be charged equally to the buyer and seller, but to be paid weekly to the comptroller of the state treasury, or by his agent, by the buyers; the certificate given the general measurer and inspector shall be by him mailed weekly to the comptroller or his agent, and in case the amounts of money shown to be due