

COMMERCIAL, MERCANTILE AND MUTUAL PROTECTIVE AGENCIES.

169. Each person, firm, agency or corporation, resident, or non-resident, doing a commercial, mercantile or mutual protective agency business in this State, shall before acting as such, first take out a license therefor, by paying an annual license fee of one hundred dollars.

INTELLIGENCE OFFICES AND EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

170. Each person, firm, agency or corporation maintaining an intelligence office or employment agency in this State before doing so shall first take out a license therefor by paying an annual tax of ten dollars for each intelligence office or employment agency.

LAUNDRIES.

171. Each person, firm or corporation, resident or non-resident doing a public laundry business in this State shall pay for the privilege of conducting such business, whether worked by hand or other power, by first taking out an annual license therefor, for each place of business, and paying the following license fee, viz.:

Laundries employing less than five persons.....	$ 5.00
Laundries employing not less than five persons, and not more than ten persons.....	$ 15.00
Laundries employing not less than ten persons, and not more than twenty persons.....	$ 50.00
Laundries employing more than twenty persons..	$100.00

Provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall be construed to impose a license tax upon persons who wash bed-clothing, wearing apparel, and etc., without laundry machinery who do not keep shops or regular places of business for public laundry purposes, nor to hotels doing their own laundering exclusively.

JUNK DEALERS.

172. Each person, firm or corporation dealing in junk within this State shall pay for the privilege of conducting such business by first taking out an annual license therefor, for each place of business and paying the following license fee, viz.:

In cities or counties of 50,000 inhabitants or over, each, per annum.....	$ 30.00
---	----------