

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 33 of Article 14 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland of 1888, title "Howard County," sub-title "Birds and Game," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

33. It shall not be lawful for any person, not a bona fide resident of said County, to shoot, or in any manner catch or kill, any partridge, pheasant, woodcock, rabbit, or any other game whatsoever, within the limits of Howard County, without first having obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said County a license permitting the person named in said license to shoot wild game in said County, for one year from the day on which said license is issued, except as herein prohibited by Sections 31 and 32; and the person therein, if he be a resident of Baltimore City, or any County in the State, he shall pay the said Clerk for such license the sum of Five Dollars, and Fifty Cents to the Clerk for issuing the same. And a non-resident of the State, shall pay to the Clerk for such license the sum of Twenty Dollars, and Fifty Cents to the Clerk for issuing the same.

Any non-resident convicted before a Justice of the Peace of said County of gunning within the limits of the County without a license so to do, shall be fined not less than Ten nor more than Thirty Dollars for each and every offense, one-half of which said fine shall be paid to the informer, and the remainder as hereinafter directed; and in default of payment of said fine imposed hereunder, together with the cost, the offender shall be committed to jail for not less than ten nor more than thirty days for each offense.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from June 1st, 1916.

Approved March 23d, 1916.
