

dence of the sale of intoxicating liquor by such person at such place or at any place of business of such person within such territory where such stamp or receipt is posted and at the time charged in any suit or prosecution under this Act; provided such prosecution is within the life of such stamp or receipt.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That all places where intoxicating or alcoholic liquors are sold in violation of any provision of this Act shall be taken and held and are declared to be common nuisances and may be abated as such; and it shall be part of the judgment, upon the conviction of the keeper, that the place where liquor is found to have been sold contrary to this Act shall be shut up and abated until the keeper shall give bond with sufficient security to be approved by the Court in the penal sum of one thousand dollars payable to the State of Maryland, conditioned that he will not sell intoxicating or alcoholic liquors contrary to law and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for any violation thereof; and in case of a violation under conditions of such bond suit may be brought and recovery had thereon for the use of Washington County for any fine or fines that may be assessed against him under this Act.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, (A) That if any person makes a sworn complaint or affidavit before any Justice of the Peace having criminal jurisdiction, or Judge of the Circuit Court for Washington County (particularly describing the house or place to be searched and the things to be searched for) that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that intoxicating liquor is sold or kept for the purpose of being sold in violation of the provisions of this Act, such Justice of the Peace or Judge shall issue his warrant, directed to any officer whom the complainant may designate having power to serve criminal process, commanding him to search the premises described and designated in such complaint and warrant, and the appurtenances thereof, and if any such shall there be found, to take into his possession and safely keep all intoxicating liquor and the vessels in which it is contained if the same shall be found in quantities and under such conditions as to suggest that it is kept for sale, and all the means used for the sale of the same, all the paraphernalia or part of the paraphernalia of a bar-room or drinking saloon, and any United States internal revenue tax receipt for the sale of intoxicating liquor effective for the period of time covering the alleged offense, and forthwith
