

or parts thereof, make such annual or continuing appropriations for any of the following purposes, to wit: (a) To or for the use, benefit, needs or purposes of any and all universities, colleges, academies, schools, high schools, normal schools, seminaries, societies and other institutions devoted, in whole or in part, to teaching, learning, training, or education of every and every kind whatsoever; (b) to or for the use, benefit, compensation, expenses, needs or purposes of any and all State, county and city boards, commissions, bureaus, departments, officers, officials or employees, including pensions to those who have been such officers, officials or employees; (c) to or for the use, benefit, needs or purposes of any and all corporations, bodies politic, associations or societies; that all such laws, acts and resolutions be and the same hereby are each and all respectively repealed, to the extent that the same make or provide the annual or continuing appropriations above mentioned, which it is the intent of this Act to end and abolish, so far as such appropriations may not be protected from repeal by any of the provisions of the Constitution of the United States. Provided that this Act shall not apply to any revenues or funds which are raised by licenses, fees, taxation or otherwise, and which after being paid over, according to law, to the Treasurer, are required by law to be by him paid over, in whole or in part, to any county or city, or to any department, commission, board or officer of any such county or city of the State.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixteen.

Approved March 28th, 1916.

CHAPTER 127.

AN ACT authorizing the Treasurer of the State to receive from any banking institution or trust company of this State a deposit of one-million-five-hundred-thousand-dollars ($1,500,000), and to use the same, so far as may be necessary, for the purposes of the State, according to law, and to give such banking institution or trust company a lien upon the annuity of ninety-thousand dollars ($90,000) created by the act of 1854, Chapter 260, which said annuity is payable by the Northern Central Railway Company, and upon the