

CHAPTER 152.

AN ACT to amend the Charter of the Baltimore Eastern Dispensary.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John F. Hancock, Philip C. Triede, John C. Distler, Jr., Mark Wells, Marion K. Burch, Wm. S. Hugg, J. Henry Cook, Walter E. Brady, Frank C. Bressler, Wm. E. Wagner, Geo. W. Habbersett and Daniel W. Cathell, and their successors who may from time to time be elected as member of said Board, shall, and may at all times hereafter, be able and capable in law, as President and Directors of The Baltimore Eastern Dispensary, to purchase, take, have and enjoy, to them and to their successors, in fee, or less estates, any land, tenements, rents, annuities, chattels, voluntary subscriptions, contributions, donations of money, registered debts, or public securities, to any amount; by gift, bargain, sale, or demise of any person or persons, body politic, or corporation, capable in law to make the same; and also to alien, sell, transfer, or lease, anything belonging to the Dispensary, in such manner as they may judge to be most conducive to the benefit of said Dispensary; and in law, to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended in all, or any Court of Justice, and before any and all judges, officers and persons whatsoever. And that it shall be lawful for them to have and keep a Common Seal, for their use, and the same at the will of them and their successors, to change, alter and make, from time to time, as they may deem best, and shall in general do all things, and have and exercise all rights, franchises, privileges and immunities, as by Law are incident to such corporations, or may be necessary to the corporation herein named, to enable it fully to execute all things concerning the design and intent of said corporation; and also to make such By-Laws, as they find necessary for the government of said Dispensary and its employees, and to change them, from time to time; provided the same be not contrary to the Laws of the State of Maryland, or of the United States.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said Dispensary shall be governed by a Board of twelve Directors, to be elected annually on the First Monday in May. The Board of Directors then elected shall serve for the ensuing year, and shall meet on the Monday following their election and organize by electing from among their own number a President, a Vice-President, a Treas-
