

urer, a Secretary, a Finance Committee (consisting of three members), and a Purveyor; also, from among applicants not connected with the Board, a Medical Staff of not less than two Attending Physicians, one of whom shall be elected as Medical Superintendent, and the other as Assistant Medical Superintendent, and such other employees, as may be necessary. No person shall be allowed to hold two paid positions at the same time.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the Baltimore Eastern Dispensary shall forever be for the destitute poor only, and its Medical Staff shall be watchful to prevent imposition on its limited resources, by applicants not indigent enough to deserve medical charity. It shall be kept open from 9 to 10 A. M. on Sundays and General Holidays, and from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. on all other days throughout the year.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in addition to its paid Medical Staff it shall be lawful for the Board of Directors to establish Special Medical Departments, at the Dispensary, at any time, and to appoint Specialists to conduct these special departments, provided they agree to give their services without pay.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That each and every adult person, who, during the expiring year, has contributed towards the maintenance of the Dispensary, any sum of money, not less than five dollars in amount, shall be entitled to vote at the Annual Election, for Directors for the ensuing year, provided that the contribution has been received by the Treasurer not less than one month before the day of election. Members of the Board of Directors that then exists, shall each also be privileged to vote at the Annual Election.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That no person shall be eligible for election as a Director, who is not a citizen of Baltimore. No Medical Man shall be eligible to serve on its Medical Staff, unless he is a graduate of a Medical College of good standing. All permanent employees should reside in the City.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the Board of Directors shall have power to fill all vacancies in their own body, occasioned by death, resignation, neglect to serve, removal from the City, or other cause; and also to remove or displace any officer or employee whom the Board may adjudge to be guilty of misconduct, or neglect of duty, or deemed to be incompe-
