

1912, and as repealed and re-enacted by Chapter No. 116 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1914, the said Section being improperly referred to in the body of said Act of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1914 as Section "No. 353," though correctly in the title as "Section 358," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section No. 358 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Montgomery County", subtitle "Kensington", as enacted by Chapter No. 790 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1912, and as repealed and re-enacted by Chapter No. 116 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1914, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 358. On or before the first day of June, 1912, and each third year thereafter, the council shall appoint three assessors, freeholders of said town, who shall, under the direction of the said Council, make an assessment of all property, real, personal and mixed, in said town, at a fair cash value at public sale, as near as they may be able to determine the same, and the Council shall immediately thereupon levy a tax thereon not exceeding fifty cents on the hundred dollars' worth of assessable property in any one year, and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person or persons against whom they may be levied, and any person may appeal from the valuation of the said assessors to the Council, which shall meet on the first Monday in July after said assessment and remain in session from day to day as long as may be reasonable, to hear and determine said appeals. And shall give reasonable notice of said meetings, and shall increase or reduce said assessment as they may deem just; and the Council shall once a year, before fixing and deciding upon the amount of taxes and licenses to be assessed for the ensuing year, cause to be made out a detailed estimate exhibiting the items of liability and expenses during the said year and shall cause the same to be published at least once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in Montgomery County, and after hearing and considering objections thereto by the owners of said property in said town, if any such shall be made, shall revise said detailed estimate and fix and assess for the ensuing year such rate of taxation, not exceeding fifty cents on every hundred dollars' worth of property, as they shall deem necessary, together with other revenues of the town, to meet said revised estimate of liabilities and expendi-
