

medicines, notions, and other goods, patent, secret or pretended inventions; to regulate and license all nine or ten pin alleys, bowling alleys, skating rinks, pool and billiard tables, theatres, moving picture shows, boxing and sparring contests, and all shows and exhibitions of every kind; to provide for the restraining of theatrical or other public amusements of an immoral or indecent nature in said town; to regulate the construction and maintenance of exits from places of amusement and all public buildings; to prevent gambling and games of chance; to regulate the use of sidewalks and all structures in, under or over same; to require the owner or occupant of premises to keep the sidewalks in front of same and the gutters thereof free from snow and other obstructions, and to prescribe the hours for cleaning same; to regulate and prevent the throwing of sweepings, dust ashes, offal, garbage, paper, handbills, dirty liquids or other material into any street, alley or public place, or on any vacant lot in said town; to regulate or suppress slaughter houses and smoke houses in said town; and regulate canning houses within the corporate limits, and to enforce the provisions of all such ordinances by appropriate penalties; to regulate, restrain or prohibit the running at large of horses, bulls, cows, sheep, goats, ducks, geese and chickens on any of the streets, lanes, alleys or highways of said town, and to further forbid or regulate the keeping of swine in said town; to regulate and prevent the use of the streets, sidewalks and public places for signs, sign-posts, awning posts, horse troughs, steps, railings, entrances, racks, posting handbills and advertisements and display of goods, wares and merchandise; to construct at public expense, or to grant franchises, regulate the putting of sewers or drains on or under its streets, alleys or highways, and the charge for entering same; to grant and regulate franchises to electric light companies, power companies, gas companies, telephone companies, telegraph companies, street railway companies, water companies, sewer or drain companies, and any other which they deem advantageous and beneficial to said town or the inhabitants thereof; all such franchises shall be for a definite term of years not exceeding twenty-five years, and be renewable at the discretion of the President and Commissioners, and shall specially set out the nature, right and duration of same, and no power or right, not expressed in the franchises or grant shall pass thereunder; to regulate the keeping of dogs in said town and to provide for taxes thereon, and to provide for the collection of same as other city taxes are collected, and to provide that any person or persons owning a dog