

succeeding morning, when he shall be taken before a Justice of the Peace and dealt with according to the nature of the offense; provided that such person so arrested may deposit with the Bailiff a sum of money or other security to cover any fine that may be assessed against him for the violation of any ordinance, resolution or regulation.

To prohibit or restrain the running at large of any dogs or other animals and to provide for the enforcement thereof, provided that in the case of dogs, such prohibition shall not continue for more than ninety days consecutively, and to make such regulations for impounding, and to impose such fines or penalties in relation to the same as to them may seem necessary and proper.

And shall have power to pass ordinances, resolutions or regulations to require any and all things to be done which will promote the welfare, good government and prosperity, or of any nature which, in their judgment, affect the health, order or morals of the town, and to forbid whatever will oppress or injure them in their persons and property.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of June, nineteen hundred and sixteen.

Approved April 4th, 1916.

CHAPTER 172.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Chapter 566 of the Acts of 1914, entitled "An Act to create a special taxing area or district and to be known as Section 3 of the Village of Chevy Chase, Montgomery County, Maryland," for the incorporation, election and succession of a Citizens' Committee, who shall appoint a secretary-treasurer and other necessary officers; also directing the Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County, Maryland, to pay over to the secretary-treasurer of said Citizens' Committee for disbursement for improving, maintaining, and repairing county roads, streets and lanes, the money collected on account of the county road tax in the same amount and manner as is now required by law to be paid to incorporated towns in said county; also empowering the said Citizens' Committee, subject to the approval of the said Board of County Commissioners, to assess the cost of certain special