

1906, Chapter 401, and any amendments or additions thereto. Said stock shall be sold by the Commissioners of Finance of Baltimore City at the best price obtainable, in their judgment, therefor. The money realized from the sale of said stock shall be turned over to the Comptroller, to be by him deposited with the City Register and placed to the credit of the new paving fund provided for in the Act of 1906, Chapter 401, and amendments thereto, and in the Act of 1912, Chapter 688. The proceeds of the sale of said stock shall be appropriated in the Ordinance of Estimates and used by the Paving Commission in all respects as provided in said Act of 1906, Chapter 401, and amendments thereto. The said city may make said stock payable at certain stipulated times, the amount of such stock and time of payment to be so arranged that the proceeds of the said special paving tax will be sufficient to pay the principal of said stock at maturity and also sufficient to pay the interest on such stock between the time of issuance and the time of the maturity thereof. It shall be the duty of the Chairman of the Paving Commission to prepare proper vouchers, from time to time, upon the Comptroller, to be paid out of said new paving fund, for the amount of principal and interest due upon any notes which may be given or stock which may be issued in pursuance of this Act. And it shall be the duty of the Comptroller and of the City Register to pay said vouchers and charge same to said new paving fund. Provided, however, that no indebtedness shall be incurred in pursuance of this Act unless the same shall be authorized by ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore providing for the giving of said notes or the issuance of said stock, as hereinabove provided, and unless and until such ordinance shall be submitted to the legal voters of the City of Baltimore, at such time and place as may be fixed by said ordinance, and be approved by a majority of the votes cast at such time and place, as required by Section 7 of Article 11 of the Constitution of Maryland.

Approved, March 17th, 1916.
