

notes and the interest thereon are paid; said taxes so to be assessed to be a lien upon the property of the person so assessed and to be collected as county taxes are now collected by law.

SEC. 5. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County may from time to time establish just and equitable annual charges for the use of the sewers aforesaid which shall be paid by every person who enters his particular sewer or sewage drain therein.

The money so received may be applied to the maintenance or repair of such sewers or of any debt contracted for the construction, establishment or repair thereof.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be taken or construed to abate, terminate or in any other manner affect any proceedings which have been conducted and carried on under the provisions of Chapter 157 of the Acts of 1912 as amended by Chapter 804 of the Acts of 1914 or the Rules and Regulations adopted by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County in pursuance of such Acts as contained in Appendix B of the Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore County of 1915, compiled by T. Scott Offutt, but such proceedings begun thereunder and which are pending at the passage of this Act shall be prosecuted and concluded under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the owners of land not assessed, and not liable to be assessed for the construction and establishment of any sewerage system constructed and established by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, may use such sewerage system for the disposal of the sewage from such land only on payment of such reasonable amount to the County Commissioners as they shall determine to be reasonable and just for such privilege and connection, and all monies so received may be applied to the reduction of any debt or the interest thereon incurred on account of the construction of said sewerage system or the establishment thereof.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that in the judgment of the County Commissioners of Baltimore County the public health or safety requires that any property or territory not connected with any public County Sewerage System, and which has not been assessed for special benefits for the construction of any public County Sewer, should be required to connect with an existing sewer, they
