

during the continuance of said license, maintain and keep for use at least six sleeping chambers, and at least six beds with sufficient covering therefor, and will have upon the first or second floor of such hotel a dining room of at least two hundred square feet floor space, with dining accommodations therein at all times for at least twenty guests, a ladies' parlor of at least one hundred and fifty square floor space, and an office and bar on the ground floor thereof; and in which shall be stated the name and residence of the applicant and the location of the premises on which the business is to be conducted, with the name of the owner thereof, and that said applicant has not been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article.

Section 192. No license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in said city shall be granted any applicant who has complied with the three preceding sections until said applicant shall have paid to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Harford County the sum of eight hundred dollars, and the further sum of five dollars for approving and filing the said bond and other papers, and for his other costs and charges in issuing the said license, which said sum of money collected by the Clerk for the license aforesaid the said Clerk shall pay over to the Mayor and City Council of Havre de Grace within thirty days after it has been received by him, without any abatement or deduction whatever, and the said Mayor and City Council shall apply all such sums so received by them: First, to the payment of the interest on the bonded indebtedness of said city, and whatever surplus remains after the payment of said interest shall be paid over to and become a part of the sinking fund of said city to pay the principal of said bonds at their maturity.

Section 193. Every person having complied with the provisions of the five preceding sections and having obtained a license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors in said city, shall display such license to conspicuous view in the room or locality where he proposes to sell, so as to be easily read. But no person who has been granted a license as aforesaid shall display to public view on the streets of Havre de Grace any sign or advertising matter or paraphernalia to increase the sale of or call attention to the public that spirituous or fermented liquors are sold or can be had on said premises; provided, however, that every person who shall obtain a license under the provisions of the preceding sections of this sub-title of this Article, shall display a neat sign containing the name of the
