

they are not, and will not during their employment, be connected with or interested in the manufacture of steam boilers, engines or machinery applicable thereto, and that they will not during their employment, accept any money, gift, gratuity or consideration from any person, and shall give bond, to be approved by the State Comptroller, in the sum of five thousand dollars each, for the faithful discharge of their duties.

573. The City of Baltimore is divided into two districts, which shall be known as the first and second steam boiler inspection districts; the first district shall embrace what is now known as the Eastern, Northeastern and Southern Police Districts; the second shall embrace what is now known as the Central, Western, Northwestern and Southwestern Police Districts in said City; and the State Board of Labor and Statistics in appointing the inspectors shall assign each to his respective district.

574. The State Board of Labor and Statistics shall provide the said inspectors with a suitably located office in the City of Baltimore, also with the necessary apparatus and appliances for the testing of steam boilers; and shall give notice for three successive days, through the two daily papers having the largest circulation in said City, of the time and manner in which it shall receive reports of the locations of steam boilers.

583. It shall be the duty of each inspector to keep a correct record of the locations of all boilers in his district, when each boiler was inspected, the condition of the same at the time of inspection, the instructions given to the engineers in charge, the certificates issued, the amount of steam pressure allowed in each certificate, and the boilers condemned or ordered to be repaired; also a correct account of all money received or paid out; and they shall report the same to the State Board of Labor and Statistics, which shall in turn report the same to the State Comptroller. All apparatus, appliances, records, documents, papers, moneys, and all other property and things now in the hands of the steam boiler inspectors, shall, as soon as this Act becomes effective, be transferred to and taken possession of by the State Board of Labor and Statistics.

584. The inspectors shall each receive such annual salary as the State Board of Labor and Statistics shall deem proper; and all moneys collected, shall be paid to the said Board, and, after deducting the necessary incidental expenses of the office, shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the State.
