

(d) In case no documentary proof of age of any kind can be produced, the officer issuing the certificate may receive and file an application signed by the parent, guardian, legal custodian or next friend of the child for physician's certificate. Such application shall contain the name, alleged age, place and date of birth, and present residence of the child, together with such further facts as may be of assistance in determining the age of such child, and shall contain a statement certifying that the parent, guardian, legal custodian or next friend, signing such application, is unable to produce any of the documentary proofs of age specified in the preceding subdivisions of this section. Such application shall be filed for not less than ten days to enable the person authorized to issue certificates to investigate the truth of the statements contained in said application, and in case no facts appear within such period of ten days discrediting or contradicting any material statement of such application, the person authorized to issue certificates shall direct the physician hereinbefore provided for to add to his statement as to the physical condition of said child a certificate stating whether said child is, in the opinion of said physician, of the full age of fourteen years, and in case said physician shall so certify that said child is, in his opinion, at least of the full age of fourteen years, said person authorized to issue certificates shall accept said physician's certificate as sufficient proof of the age of such child for the purposes of this section.

The officer issuing the certificate shall require the evidence of age specified in subdivision (a) in preference to that specified in any subsequent subdivision and shall not accept the evidence of age permitted by any subsequent subdivision unless he shall receive and file in addition thereto an affidavit of the parent, guardian, legal custodian or next friend, showing that no evidence of age specified in any preceding subdivision or subdivisions of this section can be produced. Such affidavit shall contain the age, date and place of birth, and present residence of such child.

(4) An employment ticket signed by the prospective employer, stating the occupation, industry, and place in which such child is to be employed.

Section 14. No employment certificate shall be issued until the child in question has personally appeared before and been examined by the officer issuing the certificate, nor until such officer, after making such examination, has signed and filed in
