

sonally appeared before the officer issuing the permit. The badge furnished by the officer issuing the permit shall bear on its face a number corresponding to the number of the permit. Every such permit on its reverse side shall be signed in the presence of the officer issuing the same by the child in whose name it is issued.

Section 31. The badge provided for herein shall be worn conspicuously at all times by such child while so working. All such permits and badges shall expire one year from the date of issue, and no such permit or badge shall be authority beyond the period fixed therein for its duration.

No child to whom such permit and badge are issued shall transfer the same to any other person. He shall exhibit the same upon demand at any time to any officer charged with the duty of enforcing the provisions of this act relating to street trades.

Section 37. Any person, firm or corporation, agent or manager of any firm or corporation, who whether for himself or for such firm or corporation, or by himself, or through agents, servants or foremen, employs, permits or suffers any child to work, and whoever having under his control as parent, guardian, custodian or otherwise, any child, permits or suffers such child to be employed or to work, in violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall for a first offence be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars; for a second offence by a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than ten days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 39. Any person, firm or corporation, retaining an employment certificate in violation of section 11 of this act shall be fined not more than ten dollars.

Section 40. Every employer who fails to procure and keep on file employment certificates for all children employed under the age of sixteen years, as provided in section 9 of this act, shall be fined not more than ten dollars.

Section 41. Any employer who fails to post and keep posted the printed notices and schedules required by section 25 of this act in the manner therein specified shall be fined not more than ten dollars.

Section 42. Any person, firm or corporation who hinders or delays any factory inspector, attendance officer or any officer