

charged with the enforcement of any of the provisions of this act in the performance of his or her duties, or refuses to admit or locks out any such inspector or officer from any place which said inspectors or officers are authorized to inspect, shall be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than ten days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 43. Any inspector of factories or other authorized inspector, attendance officer, superintendent of schools or other person authorized to issue employment certificates or permits and badges as required by this act, or other person charged with the enforcement of any of the provisions of this act, who knowingly and wilfully violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this act, shall be fined not more than ten dollars, and if an employee of the Bureau of Statistics and Information, in addition thereto shall be subject to dismissal by the chief of said bureau.

Section 46. Any person who either for himself or herself or as agent of any other person or of any corporation, furnishes or sells to any minor any article of any description with the knowledge that said minor intends to sell said article in violation of the provisions of this act, or who shall furnish or sell articles of any description to a minor after having received written notice from any officer charged with the enforcement of this act, or from the officer issuing the permit and badge required by section 28, that said minor is unlicensed to sell such articles, or who shall furnish or sell to any minor required to have a permit and badge as provided by section 28, any newspapers, magazines or periodicals with the knowledge that said minor intends to sell the same, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than ten days or by both such fine and imprisonment; and any sale of such articles at less than the current retail price thereof shall be prima facie evidence that the person so selling had knowledge that the minor to whom said sale was made intended to resell said articles.

Section 48. The Chief of the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information is hereby authorized to appoint four inspectors at a compensation not exceeding one thousand dollars each per annum, and three officers whose duty it shall be to issue and supervise the issuance of employment certificates, and to act as inspectors, at a compensation not exceeding