

CHAPTER 232.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce by providing for classification and regulation of its membership.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce, heretofore incorporated by the General Assembly of Maryland by Chapter 83 of the Acts passed at the January session of 1865, as amended by Chapter 136 of the Acts passed at the January session of 1870, and as further amended by Chapter 335 of the Acts passed at the January session of 1884, and as further amended by Chapter 90 of the Acts passed at the January session of 1896, in addition to the powers possessed by it under the general laws of this State and under the said Acts of Assembly, shall have the further powers hereinafter given.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the members of said corporation shall be divided into two classes to be known and designated respectively as resident members and non-resident members.

Said corporation shall have the power to prescribe and establish by such by-laws as it may see fit to adopt, qualifications for the classification of its members, as aforesaid, and to define, regulate and prescribe the nature, character and extent of the rights and privileges of members of each class respectively, and from time to time, in its discretion, to repeal, alter or amend such by-laws, or any of them.

All members of said corporation, and all persons hereafter becoming members, shall be subject to the operation and effect of such by-laws as may be adopted in pursuance of this Act.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11th, 1916.
