

CHAPTER 234.

AN ACT to incorporate the Alliance of Charitable and Social Agencies of Baltimore City.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Carroll T. Bond, Charles E. Falconer, Harry Friedenwald, Frank A. Furst, Frank J. Goodnow, B. Howell Griswold, Jr., and Daniel Willard, all of whom are residents of the State of Maryland, and their associates and successors, be and they are hereby created a body corporate, under and by the name and style "Alliance of Charitable and Social Agencies of Baltimore," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and be capable to sue and be sued, to complain and defend in any court of law or equity; to make and to adopt a constitution and by-laws for its government and amend the same at will; to make and use a common seal. And shall have power to acquire by purchase, gift, devise, or legacy, any real or leasehold estate or personal property, and to hold, own, use, sell, lease or dispose of the same at its pleasure, or to mortgage or encumber the whole or any of such property to any extent that it may desire, without individual liability on the part of its members; and generally to do all and singular such matters and things as may be necessary to carry out its objects and purposes, and to exercise the powers and privileges by this Act conferred upon it.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the objects of said body corporate are:

(1) To promote organized effort for the prevention of poverty and disease and the improvement of living conditions in Baltimore City and vicinity; and to aid in all work designed for the advancement of the social welfare and well-being of the people of the State of Maryland.

(2) To provide for the closer cooperation of various associations having the above objects in view; the avoidance of duplication of work so far as may be consistent with the charter purposes and individual integrity of the several associations; the effecting of economies in the cost of raising funds and the reduction in the number of appeals for funds on behalf of the member associations, and for other charitable and social purposes.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said body corporate shall consist of such persons, organizations and corporations as shall,
