

ordinance for a fine or imprisonment of any person or corporation violating such rules and regulations.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the revenues derived from the rentals and charges as set forth in Section 9 of this Act, after the payment of all legal charges and expenses incurred in the management of said sewerage system and sewerage disposal plant and the cost of keeping the same in repair and renewals of any portion thereof from time to time, as the case may be, shall be applied by the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown to the payment of the interest on the bonds issued under the provisions of this Act and any surplus thereof shall be set apart as a Sinking Fund by the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown for the redemption and payment of said bonds as they fall due and for no other purpose whatsoever. The revenues from said system shall be collected by such person or persons as the Mayor and Council may direct and turned over to the Tax Collector of said city who shall credit the same to a fund to be known as "The New Sewerage System Fund" and shall be paid out only on warrants issued by the Mayor of said City countersigned by the Clerk of the Mayor and Council. Said Tax Collector shall make an annual detailed report of the receipts and expenditures from said sewerage system under oath to the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown and his bond shall be liable for the safekeeping of said fund.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of the preceding sections of this Act shall not become effective unless the same when submitted, as hereinafter provided, to the qualified voters of the City of Hagerstown, at a regular municipal election, or at a special election held therefor, shall be approved as hereinafter stated.

After the passage of this Act the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown shall by ordinance or resolution fix and designate the date when the said provisions of this Act shall be submitted to said voters, which date shall be not less than eight days after the passage of said ordinance or resolution. The provisions of this Act shall be published in full at least three times in each of the daily newspapers published and circulated in Hagerstown, the first of said publications to be not less than ten days before the time of said election.

The manner of submission shall be, that, on the ballots at the regular municipal election or at the special election, there shall be printed the words "For Sewerage System" with a blank
