

Local Laws of Maryland, title "Queen Anne's County," subtitle "Queenstown," as enacted by Chapter 542 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session in the year 1892, is hereby repealed, and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

218-B. The present bounds and limits of Queenstown shall be as follows: Beginning at the foot of Old Wharf Lane and running thence with the lines of the creek shore in a westerly direction until it intersects the divisional line between the lands of William McKenney and the land of William McConnor, thence with said divisional line extended a southeasterly course across the "Gallows Field Farm" of William Hannetta De May, until it reaches a point in a straight line northeast with the extreme southern boundary of George Shepherd's land, thence due northeast with the line of George Shepherd's property until it intersects the southwest side of the Wye Neck Public Road, thence down the southwest side of said road toward the town until it reaches a point on the southwest side of said road opposite the thorn hedge on the lower line of the farm of Hiram G. Dudley, and then across the Wye Neck Road, and following the boundary line of said farm until it reaches the public road leading to Centerville, and along said road leading to Centerville until it reaches a point opposite the south or southwest boundary of the Old Wharf Lane, and thence on the south or southwest side of said Wharf Lane to the point of beginning.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of June, nineteen hundred and sixteen.

Approved April 11th, 1916.

CHAPTER 250.

AN ACT to add five new Sections to Article 18 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, entitled "Queen Anne's County," to be known as Sections 286, 287, 288, 289 and 290, providing for the issuance of a license to open, conduct, or operate any hotel, casino or excursion pavilion, or any bathing beach, park, or grounds of any description whatsoever for the resort of persons as an excursion ground, camp meeting, encampment or place of amusement or diversion anywhere within the limits of Queen Anne's County but without the limits of any incorporated town in said County,
