

missioners shall determine that the said business, entertainment or amusement carried on, or proposed to be carried on by any such applicant is not detrimental to the public health, morals, safety or welfare of the people of Queen Anne's County, they shall issue a certificate to such applicant, directed to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, to issue a license or permit to the said applicant to open, carry on or conduct the business covered by the said application; and it shall thereupon become and be the duty of the Clerk of the Circuit Court to issue a license or permit to the said applicant upon payment to the said Clerk of the sum of twenty-five cents.

SEC. 288. Any person, firm, corporation, association or organization feeling aggrieved by any decision of the Board of County Commissioners, affecting his or its interests, under this Act, may have the same reviewed by a proceeding in the nature of an appeal initiated in the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, and the Court shall determine whether the Board of County Commissioners has justly considered all the facts in any application that may be made under the provisions of this Act. If the Court shall determine that the Board of County Commissioners has acted within its powers and has correctly construed the law and the facts, its decision shall be confirmed, otherwise it shall be reversed or modified. Upon the hearing of such an appeal the right of trial by jury shall be preserved to any party to such appeal, according to the practice in civil cases. The proceedings in any such appeal shall be informal and summary, but full opportunity shall be had to be heard before judgment is pronounced. No appeal shall be entertained until notice of the same shall have been given personally to some member of the Board of County Commissioners within thirty days following the rendition of the decision appealed from. An appeal shall lie from the judgment of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County to the Court of Appeals as in other civil cases, but no appeal taken to the Circuit Court, or to the Court of Appeals shall stay any action taken by the Board of County Commissioners upon any such application.

SEC. 289. The County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County may at any time after due notice, and a public hearing, revoke any license granted under the authority of this Act, when it shall be made to appear to them that the business, entertainment or amusement for which the said license was granted is being operated or conducted in a manner detrimental to the
