

square opposite at the right, and the words "Against Sewerage System" with a blank square opposite at the right, and all voters desiring to vote for the provisions of the previous sections of this Act shall place a cross (X) mark in the square opposite the words "For Sewerage System" and all voters desiring to vote against the provisions of the previous sections of this Act shall put a cross (X) mark opposite the words "Against Sewerage System."

If at a regular municipal or special election held under the provisions of this Act a greater number of persons shall vote "For Sewerage System" than shall vote "Against Sewerage System" then the provisions of the foregoing sections shall immediately go into effect. All other provisions of the charter of Hagerstown in relation to elections are hereby made applicable to said election as fully and to the same extent as if they were incorporated herein, except as they may be contradicted by or be repugnant to the provisions of this Act.

In case a greater number of voters at any election held under the provisions hereof, shall vote "Against Sewerage System" than "For Sewerage System," the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown may submit the same question to the qualified voters at the next regular municipal election held in said city, if it shall be petitioned so to do by at least five hundred qualified voters of said town, provided, however, that after the submission of said question to a vote under the provisions of this section, another submitting said question shall not be held within six months from the first election on said question.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage, it being hereby declared to be an emergency law, and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety.

Approved March 15th, 1916.
