

office of County Road Superintendent, and prescribing the powers and duties of said officer, and to read as follows:

SEC. 227. The County Commissioners of Somerset County shall, at the time of making their annual levy, levy upon the taxable property of said county a tax not less than twenty cents, nor more than twenty-five cents, on the one hundred dollars, which shall be used for the repair and reconstruction of public roads and bridges in said county, which taxes shall be levied and collected as other taxes. The County Commissioners may levy and appropriate such other sum or sums of money as they may deem requisite for the building of any new bridge or the opening of any new road, new drain or ditch. All of the taxes levied and collected under the provisions of this Section shall be disbursed by the said County Commissioners upon the roads and bridges in said county, and in the manner hereinafter provided, and in no other way.

SEC. 228. The County Commissioners of Somerset County shall, on or before the second Tuesday in December, in each and every year, beginning on the second Tuesday in December in the year Nineteen Hundred and Sixteen, appoint some competent person, who shall have sufficient knowledge, in the estimation and judgment of the Board of County Commissioners of Somerset County, to enable him to discharge properly the duties of grading, draining, maintaining, repairing and reconstructing the public roads and bridges of said county, county road superintendent for Somerset County, at a salary not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) a year, payable monthly; and the said county road superintendent shall hold his office and be paid for his services from the first day of January next succeeding his appointment for one year, unless sooner removed, as hereinafter provided; and in addition thereto a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200.00) annually to cover all actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his official duties hereunder.

SEC. 239. The said county road superintendent shall be subject to removal from office at all times by the said County Commissioners, in their discretion, and the said county road superintendent shall not be entitled to receive any salary from the date of such removal.

SEC. 230. The county road superintendent, thus appointed, shall give bond to the said County Commissioners, properly
