

141. And be it enacted, That all ordinances and by-laws passed by the City Council shall be delivered by the Clerk of the Council at once, or as soon as conveniently may be, to the Mayor for his approval. He shall return the same to the Clerk of the said City Council within six days after delivery to him, inclusive of the day of delivery and its return, with his approval or disapproval; and any ordinance or by-law returned by the Mayor without his approval shall not become a law unless subsequently passed at a meeting by four-fifths of the whole Council, and within twenty days from the time of the return of the said ordinance, and if he shall fail to return same within six days of its delivery as aforesaid, then the said ordinance or by-law shall become a law without his approval. The Mayor shall see that all ordinances and by-laws of the City be strictly enforced; he shall after each annual election report to the Council the condition of municipal affairs, with such recommendations as he deems proper for the public good and welfare of the City; he shall appoint the officers herein provided, and he is hereby given full control of the police officers and street supervisor, who shall receive orders from him and execute them according to law and ordinances. The Mayor when he deems it to the best interest of the City and for cause suspend any police officer or street supervisor without pay for a period not exceeding one month. He shall report to the Council his action, and if he deems it advisable for the best interests of the City, he may prefer charges against such officers to the Council, who shall try said officers as herein provided. And the Mayor shall receive an annual salary of four hundred dollars.

142. And be it enacted, That the Council shall meet on the second Monday evening following their election for purposes of organization, and shall hold regular meetings on each Monday thereafter, and may adjourn from time to time, and at said adjourned meetings may transact regular business as at a stated meeting, and called meetings may be called in writing by the Mayor or by a majority of the Council as often as necessary for the transaction of business. A majority of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, and a majority of those present shall decide any question unless otherwise in this Act provided. The Councilmen shall each receive a salary of two hundred dollars per annum for their services. The Council shall organize by electing a perma-
