

property subject to taxation for City purposes a sufficient sum for all general purposes, not to exceed fifty-five cents on the one hundred dollars of the assessed value of such property, and such sums as have been heretofore authorized or that may be hereafter authorized by Act or Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland for the liquidation and payment of the indebtedness of the City of Salisbury, or any bonds thereof and interest thereon, issued or to be issued under the authority of law heretofore or hereafter passed. The taxes so levied shall from the time of the levy be a lien upon the real and personal property of the person by whom they are owing; provided, however, that the said Clerk of Salisbury may seize and take and sell any property of the owner for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes due and owing. And the said taxes may be collected either by sale as herein provided or as other debts are collected under the laws of the State. The said taxes shall bear interest from the first day of January next succeeding the levy, and all taxes not paid and in arrears after the said first day of January shall be collected as herein provided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from June 1, 1916.
