

fourth day of December to the tenth day of November following of each and every year in Allegany County; provided, however, that the closed season for squirrels shall be from the twenty-fourth day of December to the fifteenth day of September following, of each and every year in Allegany County.

SEC. 12-B. And be it further enacted, That no person or persons shall expose for sale, sell alive or dead, any of the above-mentioned game at any time in Allegany County. This Section does not apply to rabbits, nor shall anything in this Section, nor the Section above, be construed so as to prevent any person or corporation from purchasing or having in its or his possession, any live birds or game animals for the purpose of propagation, or of stocking lands in this County, nor shall this Section apply to any licensed hunter in Allegany County who shall have game in his possession that was killed by him in the lawful season of another County, or of another State, provided said person has a license in said County, or said State, to kill said game, and has a right under the laws of said County or State in which said game was killed to bring game from said County or said State, and provided that said licensed hunter notifies in writing, the Secretary of the Board of Game Wardens of Allegany County, on the date after he returns from said County or said State, that he brought into Allegany County certain game, a list of which must be furnished in said statement, also the name of the County or State where said game was killed, which statement must also give the number of the license issued him by the said County or said State in which the said game was killed.

SEC. 12-C. And be it further enacted, That in Allegany County it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, knowingly and unnecessarily, to destroy or disturb the nests, eggs or young of the birds mentioned in this Act.

SEC. 13-A. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful, for any person or persons to hunt, catch, kill, disturb, pursue, injure, shoot or have in his or her possession any partidge or quail, wild turkey, rabbit or hare, American pheasant, English pheasant, Chinese pheasant, Mongolian pheasant, ring neck pheasant, ruffed grouse, woodcock, squirrel, or deer, wild duck, wild goose, wild swan or wild Brant, possum or raccoon, in Allegany County, without first having obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany County a license, permitting the person named therein to so hunt, take, catch, kill,
