

by burning, in the presence of The Mayor and at least two others of The Commissioners of Cambridge. All bonds, issued under authority of this Act shall bear date July first, nineteen hundred and sixteen, and shall be advertised in, at least, one newspaper published in Cambridge and one newspaper published in Baltimore City, if deemed necessary, at least, once in each week for four consecutive weeks before selling the same, and said bonds shall then be sold to the highest bidder for cash, provided that no bond shall be sold for less than its par value and accrued interest. If no satisfactory bids are received from the first advertisement, The Commissioners of Cambridge may reject all bids and re-advertise, until satisfactory bids are received.

SEC. 4. Be it enacted, That for the purpose of redeeming said bonds and paying the interest thereon, The Commissioners of Cambridge are hereby authorized and empowered to levy on all property, situated within the corporate limits of Cambridge, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, such a sum as may be necessary to pay all interest on the said bonds and create a sinking fund, sufficient to pay and redeem all of said bonds as they mature and become redeemable, said tax herein authorized shall be in addition to all taxes, now authorized by law. The sinking fund herein authorized shall be kept separate from all other moneys of The Commissioners of Cambridge and shall be used for no other purpose than for the payment and redemption of the said bonds.

SEC. 5. Be it enacted, That The Commissioners of Cambridge may advertise and sell such numbers of said bonds, provided always that the same are advertised and sold in consecutive numerical order, and at such times as it may deem expedient and necessary, or the whole of said bonds may be sold at one time, as in the discretion of The Commissioners of Cambridge may seem proper.

SEC. 6. Be it enacted, That all bonds, issued by authority of this act shall be designated "Curbing Bonds."

SEC. 7. Be it enacted, That The Commissioners of Cambridge shall have the power and authority to assess upon and collect from the abutting property one half of the cost of constructing said curbs and gutters and restoring the bed of streets. All assessments upon abutting property shall be made and apportioned by the front foot rule, and such assessments when made, shall constitute a tax or lien upon such abutting
