

this Act. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of said County shall be fined ten dollars and costs for each and every offense or violation of the provisions of this Section, and an additional fine of five dollars for each and every partridge, jack snipe, rabbit, jack rabbit, quail, squirrel, woodcock, reedbird, rail-bird, blackbird, sora, wild duck, wild goose, muskrat, skunk or swan taken, shot or killed, contrary to the provisions of this Section; and in default of payment of said fine or fines and costs, the offender or offenders shall be confined in the House of Correction or County Jail for a period of not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or until the fine and costs are paid; and every such licensee shall have said license in his possession at all times when gunning, hunting, pursuing, catching, killing or shooting said birds and animals and shall exhibit the same whenever called upon so to do by any game warden, deputy game warden, the chief game warden of Harford County, sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, police officer of said County, or any owner, tenant, or lessee of property on which the licensee is gunning, hunting or pursuing the said birds or animals at the time the demand is made; and upon refusal to so exhibit such license such person so refusing shall be subjected to the fines and penalties hereinbefore provided for non-compliance or violation of the provisions of this Section. Nothing in this Section, however, is intended to prohibit or prevent any owner or owners of land or real estate in Harford County or any bona-fide resident renter, lessee or tenant of said real estate, or the sons of any such owner, lessee or tenant residing with their parents, from gunning, hunting, catching, killing, pursuing or shooting, during the open season, the birds and animals named in this Section upon land or real estate owned, leased or rented by said person or persons.

Any license found in the possession of any one other than the person to whom it was lawfully issued shall be forthwith forfeited and cancelled, and the Justice of the Peace by whom said license was issued shall enter such license cancelled in his license book, hereinafter provided for in this Act, when requested by the Chief Game Warden so to do.

SEC. 44-B. The form of said license to be issued by the Justices of the Peace of Harford County shall be as follows:
