Justice of the Peace for Harford County.

“This license gives no authority to go upon private property without permission from the owner thereof. It must be carried by the licensee when gunning, hunting, trapping, or pursuing game, and by him exhibited upon demand so to do by any game warden, officer, police officer, sheriff or deputy sheriff of Harford County, or by any owner, lessee or tenant of land upon which the licensee is gunning, hunting or pursuing the said birds or animals at the time the demand is made, under penalty of the fines and punishments provided for in the Public Local Laws of Harford County, and can be used by no one but the person named in the license; and any license found in the possession of any one other than the person to whom it was lawfully issued, shall be forfeited and cancelled.”

SEC. 44-C. The several Justices of the Peace of Harford County are hereby directed to record in a suitable book in their alphabetical order, the names of the persons to whom they have issued licenses under this Act and set opposite the names of such persons shall be a number corresponding to the number of the license of such person; and the Justices of the Peace for Harford County shall before issuing any such license administer to the applicant therefor an oath requiring such applicant to make true answers to such questions as may be asked of him by said Justices, pertaining to such application and license.
