

SEC. 44-D. The Justices of the Peace for Harford County shall make a report of and pay over at the end of each month all moneys or funds received by them for licenses as herein provided, to the Chief Game Warden of Harford County, whose appointment is hereinafter provided for in this Act, which moneys shall be expended by said Chief Game Warden as hereinafter provided for; and any Justice of the Peace failing to make a report and turn over the money received for the issuance of licenses at the end of each month, as provided in this Section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, together with the costs of prosecution for each and every offense.

SEC. 44-E. There is hereby created a Game Warden for Harford County to be called the Chief Game Warden of Harford County, who shall hold his office for a term of two years commencing on the first Monday of June next succeeding his appointment or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified, and the person so appointed as Chief Game Warden shall have been a resident and voter in said Harford County for not less than two years next preceding his appointment. The Game Warden created by this Act shall be J. Nathan Dean, who shall serve for two years from the first Monday in June, 1916; and on the first Monday in June, 1918, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and every two years thereafter, the County Commissioners of Harford County shall appoint a Chief Game Warden for the County, who shall be recommended to them in writing by the Harford County Game and Fish Protective Association (incorporated February 21, 1916), but in the event of the failure of the said Game and Fish Protective Association to recommend a person for said appointment, said Commissioners shall appoint some suitable person on their own motion as Chief Game Warden. The said Game Warden shall receive a salary of Six Hundred Dollars a year to be retained by him from monies coming into his hands from the issuance of hunting licenses and the collection of fines for the violation of the Fish and Game Laws of Harford County. And he shall be allowed for printing notices, forms of licenses to be issued as aforesaid, office rent and other necessary office expenses, to be paid out of the receipts aforesaid, not exceeding, however, the sum of Three Hundred Dollars a year; and he shall also be allowed reasonable counsel fees when in his judgment it shall be necessary to employ counsel to enforce the provisions of this
