

give bond to the inspector with a surety or sureties, to be approved by said inspector, in the sum of two thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and the said inspector in his discretion, may exact a bond from the person or persons who receive and handle the moneys collected on account of the business of said warehouses. Said inspector shall have authority to dismiss any and all appointees and employees in said warehouse, whenever in his judgment, it shall be for the good of the service; and any neglect of duty on the part of any employee shall be cause for his immediate removal by the inspector or said Board.

11. The inspector of tobacco, with the approval of the said Board of Agriculture, shall have the power to appoint one chief clerk at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum; three assistant clerks each at a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum; two samplers of tobacco, each at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum; one receiving clerk, one shipping clerk, one weighing clerk and one distributing clerk, each at a salary of eight hundred dollars per annum; two sample tyers, each at a salary of seven hundred dollars per annum; one janitor, one finder, one elevator and stay-floor man, and ten screwmen each at two dollars per day; and four laborers, each at one dollar and half per day. The inspector may also, in his discretion, employ such additional help (clerical and manual) as may be necessary for the efficient and economical management of the warehouses; to be paid during the time employed at the same rates as above fixed for similar services, and he shall keep in his office a current public record of such additional help employed by him, the duties to be discharged and the pay to be received by the same; and he may assign any appointee or employee to any work deemed by him necessary for the business of the tobacco warehouses; or for the promotion of the tobacco growing industry of the State, and he shall (as far as possible) equitably apportion the patronage at his disposal among the inhabitants of the tobacco-growing counties of the State.

12. The salaries and wages of the inspector and all employees in and for said warehouses, as also all operating expenses of said warehouses, shall be paid from the receipts thereof, and from no other source.

13. The inspector shall have full charge of all the receipts and disbursements of said warehouses, including repairs; repairs requiring the expenditure of an amount in excess of two
