

Section XLVI. Enlisted men may be transferred, in the same organization by the commanding officers of such organizations; from one organization to another, by a commanding officer of the Brigade; or from the Brigade to the Naval Brigade, or vice versa, by the Commander-in-Chief. All such transfers to be approved by the commanding officers of the respective organizations.

Section XLVII. An enlisted man who has not returned all the public property for which he is responsible shall under no circumstances receive a full and honorable discharge. A discharge or an honorable discharge, at the discretion of the officer discharging him, shall be granted to the following: A noncommissioned staff officer or a noncommissioned officer who, had he not been enlisted as such, would be reduced to the ranks; an enlisted man at his own request, provided he assigns sufficient and valid reason for such request; an enlisted man who by reason of disability is no longer able to perform his military duties properly; an enlisted man who, by the reduction of his regiment, battalions or company has become surplus, or whose signal corps, troop, battery or company shall be disbanded, provided he is not entitled at the time to a full and honorable discharge; an enlisted man who has served the time for which he is enlisted or re-enlisted, and is not entitled to a full and honorable discharge. A full and honorable discharge shall be granted to the following: An enlisted man who shall have performed in each year at least sixty per cent of the duty his signal corps, troop, battery, company, division, battalion or regiment has been required by law and orders to perform during his term of enlistment or re-enlistment, or during his total service, in case the same has been extended beyond the term for which he has enlisted; an enlisted man who fails to perform sixty per cent. of his duty during any year of his service may continue in the service, at the option of his Commanding officer, and make up such deficiency; an enlisted man who continues in service after the expiration of his term of enlistment or re-enlistment shall, in case he desires a discharge, give fifteen days' notice of application therefor to the officer authorized to grant the same, and such officer may, in his discretion, grant such a discharge forthwith, or hold the same until the expiration of said fifteen days. An enlisted man shall be held for service until his discharge is granted and issued. Discharges without honor shall be given to the following: An enlisted man whose immediate commander applies to have him discharged
