

the National Guard and the number required to bring the organizations thereof up to the authorized war strength of corresponding units in the Regular Army, with an addition of ten per centum to be used for such purposes as needed.

Section LI. Any enlisted man of the National Guard, who has served a full enlistment of three (3) years, may, upon his own request in writing, duly approved by his immediate commanding officer, be placed upon the reserve list.

Any officer who has served continuously for five years, may, upon his own request in writing, duly approved by his immediate commanding officer, be placed upon the reserve list. All officers and enlisted men on the reserve list shall be liable for duty with the organization to which they belonged at the time of being placed upon said reserve list, either on active service, or at camps of instruction; they shall be permitted to retain and wear their uniform under the same regulations and restrictions as the active members of the organization are permitted to do. They may also be permitted, in the discretion of the commanding officer of such organization, to perform such additional duties as they may volunteer for, such as routine drills, parades, etc., provided, however, that no officer or man on the reserve list receive any pay or compensation except while on active duty.

Section LII. The officers commanding the Brigade and Naval Brigade may cause those under their command to perform any military duty, and shall be responsible to the Governor for the general efficiency of the National Guard and for the drill, instruction, inspection, small arms and artillery practice, movements, operations and care of troops. Commanding officers of organizations shall be responsible to their immediate commanders for the equipment, drill, instruction movements and efficiency of their respective commands. All commanding officers and enlisted men shall be responsible to their immediate commanding officer for prompt and unhesitating obedience, proper drill and the preservation and proper use of the property of the State and of the United States or organization in their possession. The Brigade and Naval Brigade shall be inspected not less than once a year, and oftener, in the discretion of the Commander-in-Chief.

Section LIII. Officers and enlisted men may be warned for duty as follows: Either by stating the substance of the order or by reading the order to the person warned, or by leav-
