CHAPTER 319.

AN ACT to prohibit non-residents from hauling a seine or fishing with gill-nets, fikes, traps or set nets of any kind in the creeks, coves, branches and tributaries of Middle River, in Baltimore County, other than in the river proper, without first obtaining the permission in writing of the owners or occupiers of the banks or shores of such creeks, coves, branches and tributaries aforesaid, in front of which any such seine or nets may be placed, and to provide a penalty therefor.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for non-residents to haul a seine or to fish with gill-nets, fikes, traps or set nets of any kind or description in any of the creeks, coves, branches and tributaries of Middle River, in Baltimore County, other than in the river proper, without first obtaining the permission in writing of the owners or occupiers of the banks or shores of such creeks, coves, branches and tributaries aforesaid, in front of or opposite to which any such seine, gill-net, fike, trap or set net of any kind or description is or may be placed.

SEC. 2. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, or both in the discretion of the justice of the peace before whom such offender may be tried, of which fine one-half shall go to the informer.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1916.

Approved April 11th, 1916.
