

CHAPTER 320.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact Section 34 of Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Birds and Game," and to add additional sections thereto, to be known as Sections 34E, 34F, 34G, 34H, 34 I, 34 J, 34K and 34L.

Section 34. It shall be unlawful for any person, persons or corporation to hunt upon the lands of any other person in Washington County without the permission, first had and obtained of the owner, tenant or other person in possession or occupancy of said land, and no person but the owner, tenant or other person in possession or occupancy of said land shall have power to give such permission.

Section 34E. In addition to the permission required by Section 34 of this Article it shall be unlawful for any person to hunt in Washington County without a license, first had and obtained. Licenses to hunt shall be issued by the Clerk of the Court for said County, and shall be good only for the calendar year in which issued, and open season allowed for killing game in said County, and persons desiring a license to hunt, need not make application to said Clerk in person, but the application of any person to said Clerk by mail or by any other person in his behalf, when accompanied by the name, place of residence, age, height, color of eyes, color of hair and complexion of the applicant, and the fee hereinafter prescribed, shall be sufficient. For every such license issued to a resident of Washington County, there shall be charged by said Clerk the sum of Fifty Cents ($.50); or if to a non-resident of Washington County, the sum charged shall be Ten Dollars ($10.00). The said Clerk shall retain Twenty-five Cents (25c.) out of each such sum received, for his services, and the payment of all expenses incidental to this Act, and the residue shall be paid to the County Commissioners of Washington County, to be used for the payment of salaries of game wardens, and for the protection and propagation of game and fish, as hereinafter set forth. With every such license issued, there shall be given a numbered certificate, of such form as the said Clerk shall choose, bearing the names, place of residence, age, height, color of eyes, color of hair and complexion of said licensee; all of which shall be correctly recorded by said Clerk, and become public record.

There shall also be given by said Clerk, with such certificate, a substantial white canvas tag, not less than four by five inches,
