

said party for any violations of any laws of Washington County or the State of Maryland with regard to hunting, provided, however, that such person or persons shall have the right to pray a jury trial; and provided further, that any person who shall resist arrest, shall be liable to arrest and trial for resistance to an officer in the discharge of his official duties.

Section 34G. The funds derived from the sale of licenses, and all fines, penalties and forfeitures for violations of any of the provisions of this Act shall be paid by the Clerk of the Court to the County Commissioners of said County, who shall use the same to pay the salaries of the game wardens of said County, and for the protection and propagation of game with any money left over after paying said game wardens; said County Commissioners are hereby authorized to appoint persons of good repute as game wardens to serve for one year from the date of their appointment at a salary of fifty dollars per month; said game wardens shall not be occupied or engaged in other business, but shall give their entire time to this office; but in no case shall said Commissioners expend more money for the payment of salaries of said game wardens and for the protection and propagation of game, than can be paid out of the funds passing into their hands under the provisions of this Act, and provided that the term of office of said game wardens shall expire whenever the fund from which they are paid is exhausted.

Section 34H. It shall be the duty of said game wardens to diligently enforce the provisions of this Act and arrest and bring to trial all persons supposed to be guilty of violating the provisions of this Act or of any Acts of said County or State, relating to Gaming, Hunting or Fishing, and all County Game Wardens appointed by the County Commissioners shall be under the control and direction of, and may be removed from office by the County Commissioners, for failure to perform the duties of their office.

Section 34I. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to trap any game by any devices whatsoever, except that rabbits may be caught at any time during the open season by means of box traps, and muskrats, skunks, minks, possums and otter may be caught by means of any devices whatsoever during the months of December, January, February and March.

Section 34J. Any person, persons, or corporations found guilty of violating any of the provisions of Sections 29, 30, 31,
