

9D. From and after one year of the date of the passage of this Act, no brewer, brewing company, distiller, rectifier or compounder or bottler of or wholesale dealer in malted, brewed, fermented, spirituous or intoxicating liquors of any kind shall purchase or, by furnishing either by gift or loan or otherwise the money necessary in whole or in part, procure or have any proprietary or pecuniary interest direct or indirect in any license applied for or issued hereunder for the sale or disposition of any such liquors aforesaid at retail or in any business conducted under or by virtue of any such license; and any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor punishable, upon conviction, by imprisonment in jail for not less than six months and by such fine in addition to such imprisonment, as the Court in its discretion may deem it proper to impose.

9E. No brewer, brewing company, distiller, rectifier or compounder or bottler, of malted, brewed, fermented, spirituous or intoxicating liquors of any kind shall sell, give or otherwise dispose of any such liquors to any person, persons, firm, association, or corporation, in Baltimore County, except and unless the license therefor has been obtained; and any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor punishable in the same manner as is prescribed by the preceding section for any violation of the provisions thereof.

9F. Any person, or any officer or member of any corporation, association or club owning, leasing, renting or occupying any park, ground or shore in Baltimore County who shall lease, rent or hire out the same for a picnic, crab feast, shad bake, barbecue, oyster roast or feast, or other entertainment or assemblage to be held on the Sabbath or Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday and at which any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquor of any kind, or lager beer or near-beer, are drunk or are to be drunk on said Sabbath Day; or any person, or any officer or member of any corporation, association or club, who shall give, hold, conduct or take part in any picnic, crab feast, shad bake, barbecue, oyster roast or feast or other entertainment or assemblage on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, at which spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquor of any kind or lager beer or near-beer are drunk or to be drunk on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, or who shall furnish any person or officer or member of any corporation, association or club with any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquor of any kind or lager beer or near-beer to be drunk at any picnic, crab feast, shad bake, barbecue, oyster